Explanation 1- For the purpose of sub-clause (ix):

- a. 'Fraud' shall have the same meaning as referred to in Regulation 2(1)(c) of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Fraudulent and Unfair Trade Practices relating to Securities Market) Regulations, 2003.

- b. 'Default' shall have the same meaning as referred to in Clause 6 of paragraph A of Part A of Schedule III of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

Explanation 2- For identification of events enumerated in this clause as unpublished price sensitive information, the guidelines for materiality referred at paragraph A of Part A of Schedule III of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 as may be specified by the Board from time to time and materiality as referred at paragraph B of Part A of Schedule III of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 shall be applicable.

Explanation 3- The above information, unless generally available to Public, will be Unpublished Price Sensitive Information if it is likely to materially affect the price upon coming into the public domain.

"Generally available information" means information that is accessible to the public on a non-discriminatory basis and shall not include unverified event or information reported in print or electronic media;

DISCLOSURE OF UPSI

a. Designation and Role of Chief Investor Relations Officer

The Company Secretary shall be designated as the Chief Investor Relations Officer (CIRO) for the purpose of disclosure of UPSI and shall be responsible for prompt and adequate public disclosure of UPSI that would impact price discovery no sooner than the credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available. The CIRO shall ensure uniform and universal dissemination of UPSI to avoid selective disclosure and prompt dissemination of UPSI which gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise to make such information generally available.

If any dissemination of information, on behalf of the Bank takes place out of accidental omission/inadvertence, by any Employee of the Bank, such Employee shall forthwith inform the CIRO about such disclosure irrespective of the fact whether such information is UPSI or not.

b. Responding to Regulatory Authorities in r/o Market Rumors

All regulatory or stock-exchange queries, including rumour-verification requests, shall be routed to the CIRO. The CIRO, on receipt of such requests as mentioned above, shall examine the matter and, in case of doubt, consult the MD & CEO or the concerned DMD or EDs and shall make appropriate and fair response to the same without any delay. All queries/requests received shall be documented and the CIRO shall record the same in writing.

c. Disclosure/Dissemination of PSI with Special Reference to Analysts, Institutional Investors

No person, other than the Whole-Time Directors and CFO, shall disclose any information relating to the Bank's Securities to analysts and institutional investors. The CFO may be invited to meetings/conference organized by the Bank with the analysts/institutional investors. It is desirable that at least two senior representatives of the Bank be present in the meetings. During the meeting, it should be ensured that the information shared with analysts and research personnel is not UPSI.

d. Sharing of Non-Public Information

Information is considered to be non-public, until it has been adequately disclosed to the public, i.e. the information has been publicly disclosed and adequate time has passed for the securities markets to digest the information.

The CFO of the Bank shall provide only public information to the analysts/institutional investors/research persons.

The CFO should tackle the unanticipated questions carefully, which may be noted and a considered and measured response be given later, in consultation with the MD & CEO or the concerned DMD. If the answer to any question requires any dissemination/disclosure of UPSI, the same should be strictly avoided. The CFO shall take extreme care and caution when dealing with analysts' questions that are raised outside the intended scope of discussion.

e. Recording of Discussions

The Bank shall develop and adopt best practices to ensure that transcripts or records of proceedings of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences are appropriately maintained. Such records or transcripts may be made available on the official website of the Bank to ensure transparency, official confirmation and proper documentation of disclosures made during such interactions.

f. Medium of Disclosure/Dissemination

The Bank shall promptly disseminate all UPSI on a continuous basis and promptly to the Stock Exchanges where its securities are listed and, thereafter, to the Press, in accordance with applicable regulatory requirements. As good corporate governance, disclosures of UPSI made to the Stock Exchanges and the press may additionally be hosted on the Bank's official website, along with timely updates, to ensure wider dissemination of information.

g. Sharing of UPSI and Policy for Determination of Legitimate Purposes

No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI, relating to the Bank or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations or in furtherance of legitimate purposes-

No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

The term “legitimate purpose” shall include the following:

- (i) Sharing of UPSI in the ordinary course of business by an Insider, inter alia, with partners, collaborators, lenders, borrowers, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants;
- (ii) Sharing of UPSI for any other purpose as may be prescribed under any applicable law for the time being in force, in this behalf, as may be amended from time to time;
- (iii) The nature and extent of UPSI proposed to be shared, and whether the same is commensurate with the objective sought to be achieved, should also be subject to critical review. It is emphasized that UPSI should, at all times, be shared on a need – to – know basis, and only to the extent required;

Provided that such sharing should not be carried out to evade or circumvent the provisions of PIT Regulations.

CONFIDENTIALITY / NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENTS

Every Department/ Vertical shall ensure that persons with whom UPSI is shared for legitimate purposes are made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of UPSI and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information. Accordingly, the Department/Vertical shall enter into Confidentiality Agreements or Non- Disclosure Agreement with whom they are required to share UPSI. Such persons shall maintain confidentiality of the UPSI received and shall not trade in securities of the Bank when in possession of UPSI except in accordance with transactions that:–

- i. Triggers an obligation to make an open offer under the SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011 [Takeover Regulations], where the Board of Directors of the Bank is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Bank;
- ii. Does not trigger an open offer under the Takeover Regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Bank is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Bank, provided that, such UPSI is made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction; and the manner of disclosure is adequate, fair and covers all relevant and material facts, as determined by the Board of Directors.

Such confidentiality/non-Disclosure Agreements shall restrict individuals as defined therein from disclosing, discussing, sharing any confidential information with other people who are not authorized, in any form whatsoever. The agreements shall also deal with document management, meeting protocols, securities trading restrictions and other confidentiality issues, etc.

In situation where it is not practical to sign confidentiality/ Non-Disclosure agreements, the Department/Verticals shall issue a written notice to the person receiving UPSI containing necessary safeguards to be adopted by such person and obtain an acknowledgement for the same. Further, persons receiving UPSI should not trade in the securities of the Bank when in possession of UPSI.

STRUCTURED DIGITAL DATABASE (SDD)

The Bank shall maintain a Structured Digital Database containing the nature of UPSI, the names of such persons who have shared the information and the names of such persons with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database. Entry of information, not emanating from within the Bank, in structured digital database may be done not later than 2 calendar days from the receipt of such information.

The Bank has in place an online portal to capture the UPSI shared with respect to the Bank being maintained as SDD. Every Designated person who shares any UPSI with another Designated Person and/or a connected person shall make an entry in the said portal and the trading window shall be deemed to be closed for the person sharing and receiving such UPSI till the said UPSI is made available to the general public. The same shall also be conveyed to both, the person sharing and receiving such UPSI, by email.

Similarly, the Bank has in place an online portal to capture the UPSI shared by other listed entities with credit verticals of the Bank in the course of their dealings with such customers of the Bank. Every Designated Person in the credit vertical who shares any UPSI with another Designated Person and/or connected person shall make an entry in the said portal and the Designated Person his/her immediate relatives shall not deal in the securities of such listed entities when in possession of UPSI.

The SDD shall be preserved for a minimum period of eight (8) years after completion of the relevant transactions. In the event of any investigation or enforcement proceedings initiated by the SEBI, the relevant records in the structured digital database shall be preserved until the completion of such proceedings/investigation.
